

"My Dad bought a combine from J.W. Kerns in 1932.

He pulled it with 8 head of horses and cut grain for J.W.
as part of the down payment!" – Clyde Horsley

...now three generations of Horsley's have bought from J.W. Kerns!

Clyde Horsley, pictured with his son, Luther, was born in Lakeview, and his family moved by team and wagon to Langell Valley in the late 1920's. The Horsley family now raises grain, cattle and hay in the lower Klamath Lake/Midland, Langell Valley, and Bonanza areas. Luther says, "We bought this Valley ditch feed irrigation equipment from J.W. Kerns using cost share money about three years ago. We have four linears and a pivot here in the Lower Klamath Lake area and wheel lines scattered all over."
